

Children's Book Week 2020 – Curious Creatures, Wild Minds Mini Dramas

School and Home Educator Program

Enter stage left at the library – it's a theatrical extravaganza!

Join us for some fabulous Readers Theatre Workshops that are guaranteed to inspire and make reading a performance that will never be forgotten. Sessions are available for Years 1 to 6 at Clarkson and Wanneroo Libraries. Please book by Friday 4 September.

Accomplished actress and drama facilitator Naomi Hanbury will guide your students through a series of drama games and techniques, culminating in a presentation as a showcase of their learning.

Readers Theatre is a proven tool to immerse students in reading to encourage creative play. This engaging strategy also helps to improve the comprehension of students and improve their reading fluency whilst allowing everybody the opportunity to explore all elements of a text in detail.

Session times available for booking (max 30 students per session or one class):

	Date	Times	Location
1	Tuesday 27 October	9am-10.30am, 11am-12.30pm, 1pm-2.30pm	Clarkson Library
2	Wednesday 28 October	9am-10.30am, 11am-12.30pm, 1pm-2.30pm	Wanneroo Library
3	Thursday 29 October	9am-10.30am, 11am-12.30pm, 1pm-2.30pm	Wanneroo Library
4	Tuesday 3 November	9am-10.30am, 11am-12.30pm, 1pm-2.30pm	Clarkson Library
5	Wednesday 4 November	9am-10.30am, 11am-12.30pm, 1pm-2.30pm	Wanneroo Library
6	Thursday 5 November	9am-10.30am, 11am-12.30pm, 1pm-2.30pm	Wanneroo Library

Each 90 minute session will include:

- 20 minute Voice and Speech Technique and Physical warmup
- 20 Minute Characterisation - Speech, Movement, Emotion
- 20 minute Rehearsal of "Scripts"
- 30 minute Performance - Teachers and parents are welcome to watch

Resources will be provided for all groups.

A limited choice of age appropriate scripts will be provided 4 weeks before the session to the schools that have booked.

Naomi and the library team are committed to offering your students a valuable learning experience.

Naomi Hanbury Biography

Naomi Hanbury is an Educator, Professional Development Facilitator, Professional Actor and an Acting Coach with over 20 years' industry experience. A graduate from WAAPA, Naomi has worked in theatre, film, TV & radio, overseas and in Australia. She was nominated for Best Actress at the Equity Guild Awards.

Naomi conducts specialised workshops and masterclasses in the corporate world and in the community. She has delivered a vast number of successful workshops in workplaces, libraries, universities, high schools, primary schools and with senior's groups.

Naomi has been able to combine her extensive professional acting experience with her coaching to pass on her industry experience to all ages from 5yrs to adults.

Want to book a session? Please email Sharon.carnegie@wanneroo.wa.gov.au and cut and paste the following information into the message:

- School Name:
- Teacher or Home School Educator Name:
- Telephone Contact:
- Email Contact:
- Year Level or Age Range for Home Schoolers:
- Student Numbers:
- Additional Details relating to the Group:

If you have any queries about any aspects our program, please contact Sharon Carnegie on 9405 5948.

We look forward to working with you to inspire your students.